

A champion wine is elegant, majestic, and has a fantastic finish. It distinguishes itself from the others. It is truly a breed apart. Right now another breed needs your help. Each year hundreds of greyhounds retire from racing careers at tracks all across the country. Some careers end in victory while others are cut short because of a debilitating injury. Regardless, each has the potential to become a champion by finding a home.

Your donation of $50—a portion of which is tax deductible—provides entry to a very special event. Join the Greyhound Adoption League of Texas on Sunday, July 19, 2009, at the Farpointe Cellar in Southlake for an afternoon of camaraderie as we sample a flight of wine as magnificent as a Greyhound in full stride. As you enjoy the lineup of specially selected offerings—many from the acclaimed Seavey Winery in Napa, California—be sure to bid on one of the many items in the silent auction. Highlights this year include a wine tasting for 16 people and a print by Kentucky Derby and Westminster Kennel Club artist Trish Biddle.

Sunday, July 19, 2009

Proceeds from the event will be used to fund necessary veterinary procedures and costs associated with transitioning retired racing Greyhounds into permanent homes. As you taste with your palette, know that you're giving from your heart.
